

The Appraisal Report

Provided By Industry Leader

Valuation Magazine for the Valuation Professional

Valuation magazine provides valuable information on legal matters, legislative issues, industry news, tech ideas, and so much more.

In this issue the 2020 Board of Directors addresses its united commitment to advocate for the valuation profession. Also, included for review are four key issues receiving attention from Congress or federal agencies, new causes for concern from the IRS, changes in USPAP, and a critique of a host of new technical devices for the appraiser.
